Priorities

- Maintaining the positive sense of belonging of our students.
- Improving the cyberspace safety awareness of our community (parents and students).
- Improving the bus safety awareness in our community.
- Bringing down the number of violent/bullying incidents from 47 (2019-20) to 30 (2020-21)

Actions / Initiatives to Maintain

- Offering workshops for parents and students regarding cyberspace safety (social media and apps)
- Procedures to protect the school staff from intimidation and bullying
- Leadership and Conflict resolution team
- Anti-bullying presentations
- Pink Shirt Day / Anti-Bullying Week
- OurSchool Survey Due to the Covid 19 pandemic, grades 4, 5 and 6 have not been able to complete the OurSchool Survey. This being said, should the Covid 19 situation return to normal in September, we will be conducting the survey in the fall to evaluate the student's perception. The school team will be discussing how to re-establish wellness, safety as well as a positive school climate for all stakeholders.*

Actions / Initiatives to Develop

- Bus monitors
